

Rule 225

TYPES OF DISCIPLINE

- (a) Discipline. An attorney who commits misconduct may be disciplined by any of the following:
- (1) disbarment by the Supreme Court;
 - (2) suspension by the Supreme Court for an indefinite period of time;
 - (3) suspension by the Supreme Court for a definite period of time;
 - (4) probation by the Supreme Court for a definite period of time under Rule 227;
 - (5) censure by the Supreme Court, which the Supreme Court may order to be published in the Kansas Reports;
 - (6) informal admonition, which is not published and is the least serious form of public discipline and which may be imposed by a hearing panel or by the disciplinary administrator at the direction of the review committee; or
 - (7) any other discipline or condition the Supreme Court determines is appropriate.
- (b) Disciplinary History. All types of discipline become a permanent part of an attorney's reportable disciplinary history.
- [History: New rule adopted effective January 1, 2021.]
